Farmingville, NY – On November 4, 2016 Councilwoman Valerie Cartright (left) had the honor of speaking with over a hundred students at Terryville Road Elementary School Career Day. She was joined by Marie Michel (right), the Senior Assistant Brookhaven Town Attorney. As part of their School Business Partnership program, many members of the business and service community of Port Jefferson Station and Terryville volunteer their time to share their expertise with students.

Councilwoman Cartright said, "This creative event is exciting on many levels. I am honored to share my experience with students, plus, through speaking with them, I learn what they think is important. I hope I can shed light on the worthy endeavor of public service to the young people of my school district."

Mrs. April Victor is the Principal of Terryville Road Elementary which is one of two, 3rd through 5th grade schools in the Comsewogue School District. It offers countless opportunities for students to grow and succeed and Career Day at Terryville Road Elementary is one of their much anticipated annual events.
